Show time is 7:30 p.m. at the Appomattox Intermediate School.

Miss Paulette At Convention

Miss Wilsie Sue Paulette attended the 18th Annual Convention of the National Student Nurses Association in Miami Beach, Florida, April 25 - May 4. The convention theme this year was "Give A Damn."

Senator George McGovern, D., South Dakota was the keynote speaker. The students, as emeplified by their theme, discussed and planned action - oriented projects regarding the social ills of our country including poverty, hunger, pollution, abortion, the health man power crisis, and means of improving the helath care delivery system. On Friday, May 1, "Give A Damn Day", the students went on a welfare died and spent only the amount allotted by their state for food, Virginia's allotment is 13¢ per meal.

The National Student Nurses Association is composed of more than 40,000 nursing students across the United States and Pureto Rico. At this convention the Virgin Islands became a constituent also. Miss Paulette has served as a director of the association for the past year. She will be graduated from the Medical College of Virginia School of Nursing of Virginia Commonwealth University in June. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. Curtis Paulette of Evergreen.

Ruritans To Hold Brunswick Stew

The Spout Spring Ruritans will have a Brunswick Stew at Spout Spring School on Saturday, May 30, 1970 from 3 until 8 p. m.

This will be one of the annual fund raising projects for the year.

The stew will be served from 3 until 8 p.m. at 8 p.m. a drawing will be held for a 30" Comet riding lawn mower. For tickets just contact any member of the club.

Roger Pillow will be chief cook and is well experienced in making Brunswick Stew.

This stew will be served by the bowl, with crackers and drinks at a very reasonable price, also by the quart to take home and enjoy later. We would like to invite the public to "come out and enjoy the fun", and bring the family out to supper. The Ruritan Club will be happy to serve you.

Miss Kate Franklin Succumbs

Graveside services were held Thursday, May 14 at 3 p.m. in Hollywood Cemetery, Richmond.

Many people can recall when Miss Franklin first came from Pamplin in 1910 as official piano teacher at Appomattox High School. J. K. Hannah was superintendent, L. Crawley was beginning his third year as principal and Uncle Bob Craig was janitor.

And now, with the passing of Miss Kate, gone is the last of the school's great Triumvirate, Mr. Crawley, Uncle Bob and Miss Kate.

Miss Kate was a pioneer and innovator. In 1931 she introduced the idea of rhythm classes for pre-piano pupils and began her first class with eight children. They shook tambourines, jingled bells and rattled sticks in time to music and it was a success from the beginning, growing rapidly to a class of 40.

In 1934 Miss Kate added to her duties, public school music, directing singing in all grade classes.

Other piano instructors now teach hundreds of county children, but to an older generation there was but one teacher, "Miss Kate".

A 1953 issue of the TIMES-VIRGINIAN described the retirement of Miss Franklin and the ceremonies accompanying it.

The writer recalled Miss Kate Franklin's first piano recital in a small old auditorium on the third floor of the high school building when "little Cornelia Gillis, Elsie Attwood, Nettie Moses, Elaine McDearmon, Ola Sears and Frances McDearmon rose to play the "Soldiers March", "Country Gardens" and "Elephant Waltze" with their teacher dressed in a yellow Philippine silk evening gown and carrying long-stemmed American Beauty roses.

Clary, White Plains, Mr. L. P. Clary, Sr., Boykins, Mr. Claudie Clary, Hobgood, N.C., Mr. Milton Clary, of Eden Burnie, N.J.; two grandchildren. Private burial service for the family was held at 11 a.m. Thursday, May 14, in the Clary family cemetery. Memorial services were held 3 p. m. Thursday, May 14, at Olive Branch United Methodist Church, Gasburg, Va.

Attending from here were Mrs. M. J. House and son, M. J. House, Jr. Mrs. Clary was the great aunt of M. J. House, Jr.
